Course Objective:

Participants will discuss the 11 diagnostic criterion for SUD's (substance use disorders) as defined in the DSM 5 and survey and compare both diagnostic objectivity & universality among various SUD's and behaviors exhibited by clients while in addiction. Additionally, individuals will identify and Classify specific SUD updates and DSM 5 changes in coding when compared to DSM-IV and explain and interpret how changes effect both clinicians and patients. There will also be an evaluation and dialog amongst the group around the clinical benefits/drawbacks of said changes (i.e.: What did the review board get right? What gaps still exist?). Finally, there will be discussion and evaluation of the practical case studies to include diagnostic criteria as discussed to enhance and determine symptoms among the clients.
